from the pastor's heart

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever.*

Through the uncertainties of the past few days, God has through Psalm 23 comforted and strengthened me.

For one who truly belongs to God, he does not only live in Grace but in 'more than sufficient' grace because 'he shall not be in want'. He is not destined to 'walk into' the valley of the 'shadow of death' only – but to 'walk through' it. The valley of the shadow of death is definitely not his destination. And even though he walks through it, he does not need to fear because God is with him. In other words, what he needs to fear is not the valley of the shadow of death itself, but instead, to fear being parted from God. Moreover, while walking through the path dotted with the shadow of death and the enemy, he is assured of two faithful companions walking with him all the days of his life. They are there to prod him on; and to guard him - 'Goodness' and 'Mercy'. Praise be to God – who is the greatest blessing and security of a true believer and a follower of God is not one who walks into or walk out of some situations – but one who dwells in the presence of God forever!

church prayer agenda

"....I will be with you and will bless you. For to you and your descendants I will give all these land.....and though your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed...." (Gen 26:3-4)

We are all descendants of Abraham, and are entrusted this calling to bless all nations on earth. Let us aspire to receive every blessing which the Father has planned for us individually, so that we can first bless our Nation, and her people in this very trying time, both materially and spiritually.

1. Do not be bashful. Affirm the Lord's intention to bless you in all ways. Ask for a touch of greatness and abundance in His plan, which He only can give. Ask God to enlarge your territory and area of influence wherever you are placed. Ask God for more opportunities to be a channel of blessing to our Nation and our people.

2. As Joseph distributed bread to the nations during his time, ask God to give us in abundance, both physical and spiritual bread to feed the multitudes in our city. Enlarge our territory of service to our Nation. Increase our opportunities to come into contact with the hurting, hopeless and hungry people for us to bless them through His enabling.

3. At a time when the world is petrified by the possible impact of the global financial crisis, let's acknowledge that God holds our future, our destiny. Ask Him to teach us to wait on Him, and rest in quietness and confidence for His breakthroughs. Pray for the setting free of the people we know who are overwhelmed by this fear.
