It Is Well with My Soul

Like many, I am sensing the weight of the global financial crisis, just like many Singaporeans do. No one is sure what tomorrow holds. But at the same time as I draw near to the Father, I felt a deep sense of peace... and the lyrics of this hymn gives me strong encouragement. May you be strengthened as you hide yourself in the Rock of Ages.

Horatio G. Spafford had been a successful attorney in Chicago. He was the father of four daughters, an active member of the Presbyterian Church, and a loyal friend and supporter of D. L. Moody.

In November, 1873, he sent his wife and four daughters on the S.S. Ville du Harve for a vacation in Europe, planning to join them soon. Halfway across the Atlantic, the ship was struck and sank in 12 minutes. All four of the Spafford daughters were among the 226 who drowned. Mrs. Spafford was among the few who were miraculously saved.

Later, Horatio Spafford stood hour after hour on the deck of the ship carrying him to rejoin his sorrowing wife in Cardiff, Wales. When the ship passed the approximate place where his precious daughters had drowned, Spafford received sustaining comfort from God that enabled him to write the words of this hymn: "When sorrows like sea billows roll ... It is well with my soul."

1) When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll-
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

CHORUS: It is well with my soul, is well, it is well with my soul.

2) My sin- O the joy of this glorious thought-

My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more:
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

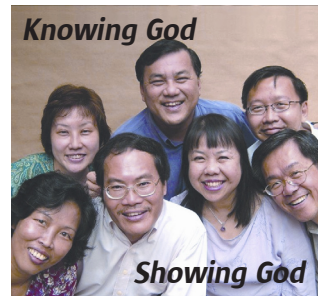

3) Tho' Satan should buffet, tho' trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

4) And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight, The clouds be rolled back as a scroll: The trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend, "Even so"- it is well with my soul.

Ps Lilian Wong

family news

*Honour God, be on time for the service.
Choose to be early so that you can prepare your heart to worship.*

1) Be a Sender

Over 70 in KY have signed up for the short-term missions to China. Some who have signed up do not have enough money to pay for their trip. They trust in God to provide for them. Those of us who are not going to Missions this time, would you like to play the role of "Senders" by contributing to their fee? The target is $5000. Be prepared to give as the Lord enables you. Write on the offering envelope 'I am a Sender' and the money will go towards this purpose. Collection will be taken today and next week (May 31).

2) Welcome new staff member

We warmly welcome brother Chieng Lee Chin into the staff team with effect from Jun1 as ministry staff for the Cantonese ministry. He graduated from Trinity Theological College with B Th and has served in grassroot and senior citizens ministries. May the Lord use bro Chieng mightily in partnership with the church leaders and staff. May you bless him in prayer.

3) Carpark not available on May 30 (Sat)

Sorry we are not able to allow parking as there are various activities happening the whole day. Only the church vans and vehicles of staff will be allowed in.

4) 2009 Global Day of Prayer (GDOP)

- A 10-day Prayer Guide (21-30 May)

Let's answer God's call to pray for His will to be done on earth as it is in heaven.

- GDOP, May 31, 7.14 pm at Singapore Expo Halls 8 & 9

Join churches across the nation in united prayer and worship to Jesus, the King of kings.

5) 'Are you part of the 100k?' Blessing Campaign (May 3 - 31)

Blessing is a prophetic way of praying. When we bless, we are invoking the goodness of God. Approach a friend, colleague or even a stranger with the 100k pamphlet and invite them to receive a blessing from God.

6) "Open Heavens" - English Congregation prayer from 11.30 am - 12.30 pm in Room 202.

church prayer agenda

"...all peoples on earth will be blessed through you." (Gen 12:3)

"...and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed" (Gen 26:4)

It is always God's will to bless mankind.

He has planned to bless mankind through Abraham and his descendants. The baton has now been passed on to us as Abraham's descendants to bless the people around us;

particularly so in a crisis situation like now.

His blessings cannot be thwarted by the crisis.

1) Ask God to empower us to follow His commands and be obedient to follow all His ways, especially during the current financial crisis. Ask for His blessings to be showered on us in every area of our life, just as He covenanted with Abraham so that we can be channels of blessing to all the people around us.

2) Ask God to open the heavens, the storehouse of His bounty, in the midst of this crisis, to pour forth His favor on us, and to bless all the works of our hand. Wherever He places us, His blessings will follow unceasingly. Let our life invoke godly influence and impact in those places.

3) Fervently ask God to bless our Nation with sufficient resources to live through this global financial crisis. In His supernatural way, bless Singapore's economy to be restored to normalcy; and people who have been retrenched will be reinstated in the job for their daily needs. Many will be blessed to come to know the Lord through this crisis.
