from the pastor's heart

"I Surrender All..." so goes the great hymn of old!

Surrender is a difficult word. For many it means to admit defeat; to give up. The loser surrenders and gives up to the victorious. The routed army hoisting the white flag or the battered boxer throwing in the towel. One triumphs and the other is vanquished.

However the Christian call to surrender oneself is not a 'Giving Up' but rather a 'Giving In'. God is not the conqueror who subjugates us forcibly; foisting His will on us. But He draws us to Himself and we yield.

The bible tells us that Jesus loves the church so much that He gave His life for us. Unreservedly and definitively he made his choice. Now it is up to us. We can choose to resist or yield. To live by His plan or strive to carve out our own.

His promise is 'For I know the plans I have for you...plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future' (Jer 29:11).

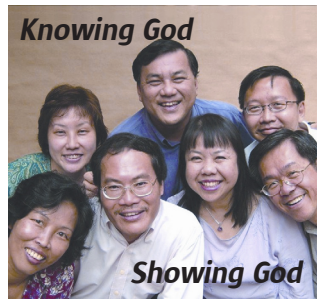

What is God saying to you this season of fast and prayer? Is He dealing with some of your adamant ways or unbending plans?

Remember, to live by His plans, we first have to give up ours. This is giving in. So that He can give us His best.

Ps Quek Boon Chiau

church prayer agenda

"...you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God..." (1 Pet 2:9). God considers us as worthy to be counted amongst kings and priests. He places us in the privileged position to be part of His royal family to testify of His goodness. We ought to conduct ourselves like royalties before God and man.

1. As a people separated unto God, earnestly ask God to stir our hearts to desire to bear in greater measure the fruit of the Spirit in our life - love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, faithfulness, gentleness, goodness and self control.

2. Pray for the spirit of discernment to come against conforming to the patterns and things of this world which will lead us into worldliness and away from God. Help us to form the discipline to daily draw near to God.

3. Acknowledge that we belong to God; to live for Him, to glorify Him. Ask God to help us daily be on guard against the sinful desires which war against us to destroy us. Help us to put to death whatever belongs to our earthly nature (Col 3:5) and to walk in holiness before God.
